Provider Spotlight Te Tairāwhiti Māori Performing Arts (Whiti Mai) – Phase 1

MCCF has contracted $1.500m in funding to Te Tairāwhiti Māori Performing Arts to help boost vaccination rates in the Gisborne region.

Te Tairāwhiti Māori Performing Arts held a Māori and indigenous led festival and laid out a kaupapa that was focused on the health and well-being of the community while hosting an array of artistic events. Offering vaccines was part of a bigger conversation at the event, aimed at protecting whānau and the most vulnerable. The community led kaupapa was so successful that at one stage they exhausted their vaccine supply.

In addition to the festival Te Tairāwhiti Māori Performing Arts ran 77 mobile vaccination events, alongside drive through vaccination events and pop up clinics. These events were supported by the development of 30 billboards, 7,500 fliers and posters and a 6 week campaign across 6 radio stations to encourage whānau to get vaccinated.

The pūtea provided by the MCCF to Te Tairāwhiti Māori Performing Arts assisted in lifting first dose vaccination rates in the Gisborne region from 76% to 90% and second vaccination dose rates from 59% to 85%.

Ngātiwai Trust – approved Phase 2 proposal

Ministers have approved this proposal worth $0.523m to support the COVID-19 response, recovery and resilience for vulnerable communities within Tai Tokerau.

Whānau targeted through this project include those that are living in poverty that are either unable or at risk of being unable to meet basic needs, those without permanent housing and those that are unemployed and not engaged in education or training. Ngātiwai Trust plan to do this by building whānau capability to self-manage and be prepared to isolate at home should they become infected with COVID-19. Their strategies to do this include implementing comprehensive whānau preparedness plans which will address how they might access essential services, health and welfare services, how to support the elderly and access to relevant and factual information. Ngātiwai Trust set up an 0800 proactive calling service and plan to extend this as part of Phase 2.

Ngātiwai also plans to extend and strengthen their previous vaccination efforts to include 5-11 year olds and supporting whānau through to full vaccination.
